Required Preliminary Competitions

More than competitions - these are the moments that shape a queen's legacy.

Each delegate will participate in three equally weighted competitions during preliminary competitions. Scoring is based on confidence, personality, stage presence, and overall impression. Every category counts for $\frac{1}{3}$ of the total score.

Evening Gown

Where elegance meets presence.

1/3 score

Delegates will grace the stage in a full-length gown of their choice. Judges are looking for confidence, poise, elegance, personality, and overall impression. They will ask: Does this delegate demand attention? Does she appear confident and joyful? Is she commanding the stage? Does her vibe “give” International Titleholder?

Attire: A full-length gown of the delegate's choice. No preferred style or color. Must be age-appropriate and reflect personal taste and style. Pay special attention to fit, particularly length and torso.

Interview

Authenticity with a voice of purpose.

1/3 score

Delegates will share their personalities, goals, and unique qualities during a friendly interview with our judging panel. Questions will be drawn from the delegate's resume. Judges are looking for authenticity, confidence, clear age-appropriate goals, and a plan for leaving a legacy.

Junior Princess & Princess:
3-minute panel interview

Preteen – Elite Ms./Mrs.:
5-minute panel interview

Attire: A fashion-forward outfit of choice. Can be a dress, pants, or in between. Must be age-appropriate and showcase the delegate's personal taste and style. Fit is key.

Ultimate Fashion

Style. Confidence. The “it-factor”.

1/3 score

Delegates will light up the stage in our upbeat modeling competition, showcasing their ultimate version of style. Judges will evaluate confidence, personality, modeling ability, and overall impression. They will ask: Is this delegate commanding attention? Is she enjoying herself on stage? Does she have an “it factor”?

Attire: Fashion-forward, high-fashion outfit of choice. This can be a dress, pants, or in between. Must be age-appropriate and highlight the delegate's personal style and fit.

Required Final Competitions

The top delegates in each division will return to the stage for our finale competitions. These scores will determine the Ultimate International Miss titleholder. Each category counts for ¼ of the final score.

Evening Gown

Elegance takes its final walk.

1/4 score

Finalists will shine once more in a full-length gown of their choice. Preliminary gown scores will be cleared, and the finale performance will make up ¼ of the delegate's final score. Judges will evaluate using the same criteria as preliminaries—confidence, poise, elegance, personality, and overall impression.

A second gown is not required.

On Stage Question

Grace under pressure. Final impression.

1/4 score

Finalists will be asked a single on-stage question designed to showcase confidence, communication skills, and the ability to think under pressure.

Judges will score responses from 1–10. Delegates will deliver their answer in evening gown and have 30 seconds to respond.

Ultimate Fashion

Style under the spotlights.

1/4 score

Finalists will light up the runway again in Ultimate Fashion. Preliminary scores will be cleared, and the finale performance will account for ¼ of the delegate's final score. Judges will evaluate stage presence, modeling ability, personality, and overall impression, just as in preliminaries.

A second outfit is not required.

Preliminary Interview

Your voice carries to the crown.

1/4 score

The preliminary interview score will carry into finals—it will not be cleared. This score will account for the remaining ¼ of each delegate's final score.

At the conclusion of all categories, the delegate with the highest overall score will be crowned the new Ultimate International Miss.
