INTRODUCING UIM PRIMARY

UIM Prep is a grade-level pageant experience created for delegates in Kindergarten through Fifth Grade who want to experience Ultimate International Miss in a flexible, age-appropriate format with no non-compete.

UIM Prep delegates compete during Ultimate International Miss International Week and enjoy the same polished production, stage experience, and core areas of competition as our traditional UIM delegates. Instead of competing in age divisions, Prep delegates compete by current school grade: Kindergarten, First Grade, Second Grade, Third Grade, Fourth Grade, and Fifth Grade.

UIM Prep was designed to give younger contestants and their families another way to experience the UIM brand. It is especially well suited for families who prefer grade-level competition, have siblings who may otherwise fall within the same traditional division, or wish to continue participating in other pageant systems during the title year.

Unlike our traditional Ultimate International Miss titles, UIM Prep titles do not carry a non-compete requirement. Winners may continue to compete in other pageants throughout their reign while representing UIM.

Our goal is simple: to give younger delegates the opportunity to experience the confidence, sisterhood, leadership, authenticity, and excitement of UIM while offering families greater flexibility.

Same stage. Same competitions. More flexibility.

Required Preliminary Competitions

More than competitions - these are the moments that shape a queen's legacy.

Each delegate will participate in three equally weighted competitions during preliminary competitions. Scoring is based on confidence, personality, stage presence, and overall impression. Every category counts for ⅓ of the total score.

Evening Gown

Where elegance meets presence.

1/3 score

Delegates will grace the stage in a full-length gown of their choice. Judges are looking for confidence, poise, elegance, personality, and overall impression. They will ask: Does this delegate demand attention? Does she appear confident and joyful? Is she commanding the stage? Does her vibe "give" International Titleholder?

Attire: A full-length gown of the delegate's choice. No preferred style or color. Must be age-appropriate and reflect personal taste and style. Pay special attention to fit, particularly length and torso.

Interview

Authenticity with a voice of purpose.

1/3 score

Delegates will share their personalities, goals, and unique qualities during a friendly interview with our judging panel. Questions will be drawn from the delegate's resume. Judges are looking for authenticity, confidence, clear age-appropriate goals, and a plan for leaving a legacy.

Junior Princess & Princess:
3-minute panel interview

Preteen – Elite Ms./Mrs.:
5-minute panel interview

Attire: A fashion-forward outfit of choice. Can be a dress, pants, or in between. Must be age-appropriate and showcase the delegate's personal taste and style. Fit is key.

Ultimate Fashion

Style. Confidence. The "it-factor".

1/3 score

Delegates will light up the stage in our upbeat modeling competition, showcasing their ultimate version of style. Judges will evaluate confidence, personality, modeling ability, and overall impression. They will ask: Is this delegate commanding attention? Is she enjoying herself on stage? Does she have an "it factor"?

Attire: Fashion-forward, high-fashion outfit of choice. This can be a dress, pants, or in between. Must be age-appropriate and highlight the delegate's personal style and fit.

Required Final Competitions

The top delegates in each division will return to the stage for our finale competitions. These scores will determine the Ultimate International Miss titleholder. Each category counts for ¼ of the final score.

Evening Gown

Elegance takes its final walk.

1/4 score

Finalists will shine once more in a full-length gown of their choice. Preliminary gown scores will be cleared, and the finale performance will make up ¼ of the delegate's final score. Judges will evaluate using the same criteria as preliminaries—confidence, poise, elegance, personality, and overall impression.

A second gown is not required.

On Stage Question

Grace under pressure. Final impression.

1/4 score

Finalists will be asked a single on-stage question designed to showcase confidence, communication skills, and the ability to think under pressure.

Judges will score responses from 1–10. Delegates will deliver their answer in evening gown and have 30 seconds to respond.

UIM Primary* divisions do not compete in On-Stage Question.

Ultimate Fashion

Style under the spotlights.

1/4 score

Finalists will light up the runway again in Ultimate Fashion. Preliminary scores will be cleared, and the finale performance will account for ¼ of the delegate's final score. Judges will evaluate stage presence, modeling ability, personality, and overall impression, just as in preliminaries.

A second outfit is not required.

Preliminary Interview

Your voice carries to the crown.

1/4 score

The preliminary interview score will carry into finals—it will not be cleared. This score will account for the remaining ¼ of each delegate's final score.

Themed Rehearsal Stye Guide

UIM ON TOUR

Dress Like the Headliner You Are.

Think "backstage at her world tour." Each delegate wears the UIM tee (provided at registration) but chooses her own pop-star style. The examples below are meant to guide you. You do not have to choose one of the looks below. We want to see you style and personality shine through.

- Pop Princess: Metallic pleated skirt, pink sneakers, heart sunglasses, and a high ponytail.
- Country Headliner: Denim shorts or jeans, cowboy boots, and a fringe vest.
- Rock Star: Black jeans, a silver belt, studded sneakers, and a denim jacket.
- Pop Diva Vibes: Sequin pants or sparkly flares, sneakers, and oversized sunglasses.
- Hip Hop Star: Cargo pants, colorful high-tops, hoop earrings, and a varsity jacket.

You may tuck, knot, or wear the tee loose to fit your "world tour style".

STATE & NATIONAL WEAR

Your roots. Your pride. Your style.

Show off the place you call home! Create a look inspired by your state or country through its colors, culture, landmarks, or signature style. Go individual or coordinate matching looks with your state or national team...the choice is yours. Have fun, get creative, and let your hometown pride shine!

You may wear the same outfit for State & National Wear Rehearsal and the pep rally.

REIGN WEAR

Move with confidence. Rehearse in Reign.

Get ready to move in style with Reign Sport,
UIM's Official Pageant Lifestyle Apparel Partner!

All delegates are expected to wear Reign Sport Wear for this rehearsal and will receive a 15% off coupon code to purchase their outfit through the Reign Sports website.

Choose a look that shows your personality and come ready to shine!
